SUCCESS-POWER

"Where Do I Come In?"

This is the first question you will ask when you are working on a selfish basis.

Don't belong to the great army of people who always think of themselves first. It's an army that never won a Self-interest destroys work-interest.

You can't afford to stunt yourself by enlarging your vision of the pay you think you ought to get.

There is no rule of mathematics that can enable you to figure your worth in advance of your work.

It is a good thing for a worker's reach to exceed his grasp, as long as he isn't always reaching for his paycheck or his hat.
